

Surveillance Cameras Are Not Solution

Studies from around the world have shown that surveillance cameras do not prevent or reduce crime.

Surveillance cameras also do not appear to be deterring crime in many San Francisco communities.

Crime has increased in more than half (8 of 15) of the locations where cameras have been installed.