DEMURRER

Defendants Kernan, Davis, and the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation generally demur to plaintiffs' complaint under Code of Civil Procedure, section 430.10, subdivisions (a) and (e) on the grounds that: (1) Plaintiffs fail to state a cause of action because under the rules of statutory construction, the exemption from compliance with the Administrative Procedure Act provided for in California Penal Code section 3604.1 subdivision (a) applies to the entire set of File and Print regulations pertaining to administration of the death penalty by lethal injection adopted by the California Department of Corrections and filed with the Secretary of State on March 1, 2018; and (2) There is no jurisdiction as to plaintiff Masters, a state prisoner, who failed to plead that he exhausted his administrative remedies before he filed suit.

This demurrer is based upon this notice of demurrer and demurrer, the supporting memorandum of points and authorities, request for judicial notice, the pleadings and papers on file in this action, and on such other materials as may properly come before this court.

¹ A copy of this local rule was served on plaintiff with this motion to strike.
