Correct - you would have to be friends with them. We abide by the terms of service with each social media provider, we we aren't going to pull content with out the users consent. Geofeedia is actually a partner with Instagram, you can imagine trust is key component to us staying around.

Is that only for users we are friends with? The reason I am clarifying this is because County Counsel wants to be sure we are not viewing private content without a search warrant.

They haven't reached out or sent anything back. Let me know if there's anyone I can contact.
Thanks
