I, Kurt Opsahl, declare as follows:

- I am a Senior Staff Attorney at the Electronic Frontier Foundation ("EFF"), and a member in good standing of the California State Bar, and am admitted to practice before this Court. Except as otherwise indicated, I have personal knowledge of the matters stated in this declaration and, if called upon to do so, am competent to testify to all matters set forth herein.
- EFF is a non-profit civil liberties organization working to protect rights in the digital world. EFF actively encourages and challenges industry and government to support free expression and privacy in the information society. Founded in 1990, EFF is based in San Francisco.
- I, along with other attorneys at EFF, represent the Internet Archive ("the Archive") on various legal matters.
- 4. In June of 2007, Special Agent Scott Rakowitz of the San Francisco office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation scheduled a liaison meeting with our office because of our role as counsel to the Archive. The meeting took place in July of 2007 at the EFF office, with Special Agent Rakowitz and Supervisory Special Agent Chuck Esposito. As I recall, the meeting also included my colleagues Staff Attorney Kevin Bankston and Legal Director Cindy Cohn. No. employee of the Archive was present. At that we meeting, we agreed that EFF would accept service on behalf of the Archive of legal process from the United States. We also discussed the Archive generally, providing an overview of the Archive's operation and how little information the Archive maintains.
- 5. On Monday, November 26, 2007, I received a voicemail message from Supervisory I am informed and believe that similar messages were left with my Special Agent colleagues Senior Staff Attorney Lee Tien and Kevin Bankston. The messages informed us that an FBI agent would be coming by our office that day. I am informed and believe that my colleague Kevin Bankston returned the message and spoke with Supervisory Special Agent learning that an FBI special agent would be serving a National Security Letter at our offices.
- Later that morning, Special Agent arrived at our office and met with Mr. Bankston. At that time, Special Agent served a National Security Letter ("NSL") on Mr. Bankston as a representative of the Archive.
